LINCOLN, NE — The Nebraska School Activities Association is honored to recognize Tom Boyd of Papillion-La Vista as this week's Above and Beyond Award nominee. Tom's behind-the-scenes dedication to supporting game officials exemplifies the spirit of service and excellence this award celebrates.

Tom plays a crucial role in coordinating officials for Papillion-La Vista's athletic events and takes tremendous pride in ensuring they are respected, supported, and well cared for.

His attention to detail and hospitality are unmatched - providing drinks, snacks, towels, and any additional accommodations officials may need. He personally escorts them on and off the field and ensures they have reserved parking spaces, creating a welcoming and professional environment.

Officials consistently express their appreciation for Tom's efforts, noting the respect and gratitude they feel thanks to his care and attention. Tom's actions not only reflect his personal commitment but also represent the values of the Papillion-La Vista school community - where respect, professionalism, and sportsmanship are prioritized.

Through his tireless work and thoughtful service, Tom Boyd goes above and beyond to ensure every official's experience is a positive one. He is a vital part of the school's athletic success and a deserving nominee of this recognition.

The NSAA's Above and Beyond Program is designed to recognize the hidden gems of communities across Nebraska. Click here to nominate someone today!
