

1982 Baseball State Championship

Thirty schools entered district competition in baseball. All teams played in one class. Six district tournaments were held and the district winners qualified for the state tournament. Two additional state tournament teams were selected from the non-district winners with the best winning percentage among teams playing 10 or more games. These wild card teams were Creighton Prep and Wakefield. The state tournament was May 29, June 1-2, with the first round at Ralston and Papillion and the remainder of the tourney at Ralston's Orval Smith Field. Ken Allen of Ralston was tournament director. George Payne of Papillion directed Papillion's first round portion.
