Girls basketball had six classes in 2013-14. Each class qualified eight teams for the NSAA Girls State Basketball Championships, which were held March 6, 7 & 8, 2014 in Lincoln.

Class A was divided into seven districts with the district champions and one wild-card team, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Bellevue East was the wild-card team for Class A. Class B was divided into six districts with the district champions and two wild-card teams, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Holdrege and Norris were the Class B wild-card teams.

Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 were divided into twelve sub-districts and six districts. The winners of the district finals in each class advanced to the state championships. The two non-district champions with the highest wild-card average received invitations to the state tournament. The Class C1 wild-card qualifiers were Kearney Catholic and Bishop Neumann. Pender and Guardian Angels Central Catholic were the C2 wild cards. In D1, St. Mary’s and North Platte St. Patrick’s received the wild cards. Sterling and Stuart were the D2 wild-card winners.

For the seventh consecutive season, the NSAA played third-place games, pairing the two teams losing in the semifinal round. Paid attendance: 55,957.

Boys basketball had six classes in 2013-14. Each class qualified eight teams for the NSAA Boys State Basketball Championships held on March 13, 14, & 15, 2014, in Lincoln.

Class A was divided into seven districts with the district champions and one wild-card team, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Norfolk was the wild-card team for Class A. Class B was divided into six districts with the district champions and two wild-card teams, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. York and Omaha Skutt Catholic were the Class B wild-card teams.

For the ninth year in NSAA history, Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 also had two wild-card qualifiers. Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 were divided into twelve sub-districts and six districts. The winners of the district finals in each class advanced to the state tournament. The two non-district champions with the highest wild-card average received invitations to the state tournament. The Class C1 wild-card qualifiers were Boone Central/Newman Grove and Wahoo. Doniphan-Trumbull and Southern Valley were the C2 wild cards. In D1, Howells-Dodge and Elm Creek received the wild cards. Falls City Sacred Heart and Bancroft-Rosalie were the D2 wild-card winners.

For the seventh consecutive season, the NSAA played third-place games, pairing the two teams losing in the semifinal round.

Paid attendance: 85,119.
