

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Girls basketball had six classes in 2014-15. Each class qualified eight teams for the NSAA Girls State Basketball Championships, which were held March 5, 6 & 7, 2015 in Lincoln.

Class A was divided into seven districts with the district champions and one wild-card team, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Millard West was the wildcard team for Class A. Class B was divided into six districts with the district champions and two wildcard teams, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Norris and Omaha Gross Catholic were the Class B wildcard teams.

Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 were divided into twelve sub-districts and six districts. The winners of the district finals in each class advanced to the state championships. The two non-district champions with the highest wildcard average received invitations to the state tournament. The Class C1 wildcard qualifiers were Minden and Pierce. Freeman and Ponca were the C2 wildcards. In D1, Fullerton and Humphrey St. Francis received the wildcards. Stuart and Hampton were the D2 wildcard winners.

For the eighth consecutive season, the NSAA played third-place games in Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2, pairing the two teams losing in the semifinal round. There were no third place games in Classes A and B. Paid attendance: 52,914.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Boys basketball had six classes in 2014-15. Each class qualified eight teams for the NSAA Boys State Basketball Championships held on March 12, 13, & 14, 2015, in Lincoln.

Class A was divided into seven districts with the district champions and one wildcard team, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. South Sioux City was the wildcard team for Class A. Class B was divided into six districts with the district champions and two wildcard teams, selected on the basis of a point system, qualifying for the state tournament. Sidney and Elkhorn South were the Class B wildcard teams.

For the tenth year in NSAA history, Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 also had two wildcard qualifiers. Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2 were divided into twelve sub-districts and six districts. The winners of the district finals in each class advanced to the state tournament. The two non-district champions with the highest wildcard average received invitations to the state tournament. The Class C1 wildcard qualifiers were Columbus Scotus and Wahoo. Freeman and Southern Valley were the C2 wildcards. In D1, Heartland and Humphrey St. Francis received the wildcards. Wilcox-Hildreth and Exeter-Milligan were the D2 wildcard winners.

For the eighth consecutive season, the NSAA played third-place games in Classes C1, C2, D1 and D2, pairing the two teams losing in the semifinal round. There were no third place games in Classes A and B. Paid attendance: 89,969.
