

NSAA Student Advisory Committee Members selected for the 2022-23 school year

The Nebraska School Activities Association (NSAA) is pleased to announce the individuals selected to the NSAA Student Advisory Committee for the 2022-23 school year. These new members will join the 10 seniors serving their second year:

Ashland-Greenwood High School—Dane Jacobsen
Axtell High School—Jenna Marsh
Crete High School—Lauren Maly
Doniphan-Trumbull High School—Benjamin VanDiest
Gordon-Rushville High School—Haley Johnson
Howells-Dodge High School—Landon Dobbins
Omaha Skutt Catholic High School—Kyler Seaman
Tri County High School—McKenzie Smith
West Holt High School—Madison Davis
Wilber-Clatonia High School—Jorge Vasquez

Out of a number of outstanding applicants, ten were selected to serve for their junior and senior years. These students were selected from the Nebraska's six NSAA districts. The selection process was extremely competitive and focused on the representation of gender, school classification, minority representation, and participation in interscholastic athletics/activities. This group collectively represents all the NSAA sponsored activities.

The Student Advisory Committee helps to promote the mission of the NSAA, encompassing leadership, sportsmanship and integrity. The focus is on providing education and leadership through open and honest communication with all member schools and their students, administrators and coaches.

Duties and responsibilities are: discuss current student and Association issues; assist with various Association functions; help to maintain an avenue of communication between the Association and the student participants themselves; creating and implementing initiatives within their respective schools, communities and/or school conferences.

Additional responsibilities include:

- Students providing input, helping to develop and attending the sportsmanship and leadership summits in conjunction with the Nebraska Coaches Association.
- Students recording public service announcements (PSAs), through our media partner STRIV.TV.

Congratulations to the new members of the Student Advisory Committee!!
