Rosie Mathiasen, M.D., is a Fellow in Orthopaedic Surgery at UNMC. He is active in research and has published in peer-reviewed journals and text books. His main research interests are in pediatric sports medicine and vaccine medicine.

David Clare, M.D., is an Orthopaedic surgeon with Nebraska Orthopaedic and Sports Medicine in Lincoln. He received his B.S. from UNL in 1989 and his M.D. from UNMC in 1994. He then completed his Orthopaedic residency at the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio, Texas in 1999. He remained in San Antonio for his fellowship in sports medicine/adult reconstruction completed in 2000. He and his wife Tana have two sons, Patrick and Thomas.

Nathan Krug, M.D., is a Family and Sports Medicine physician at Merrick Medical Center in Central City, Nebraska where he serves as the Director of Sports Medicine and President of the Medical Staff. He is originally from Central City and graduated from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln while lettering in football for the Cornhuskers. He completed his medical degree at the University of Nebraska Medical Center and obtained his residency training and one-year primary care sports medicine fellowship at the University of Kansas School of Medicine in Wichita. He currently serves as the Medical Director for the NCAA Men's Division I Baseball College World Series in Omaha and also provides event coverage for local teams around the state. He is an Adjunct Professor of Family and Sports Medicine through UNMC's Department of Family Medicine. Dr. Krug has been published in peer reviewed journals and has authored sports medicine chapters for medical text books. He is actively involved in multiple national committees and leadership roles. He was elected to the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine's (AMSSM) Fellowship Committee and also now serves on the AMSSM's Practice and Policy Committee as one of Nebraska's sports medicine legislative liaisons. He currently resides in Central City, Nebraska with his wife Chrsiti and their four daughters.

Tyler Oberlander, MS, LAT, ATC, NREMT, is an Athletic Trainer and interdisciplinary healthcare team member with Great Plains Health in North Platte, NE. He joined Great Plains Health in 2015. Originally from Elm Springs, SD, he attended South Dakota State University where he completed his undergraduate degree in athletic training (2013) and a Master of Science degree in Sports Administration (2015). Tyler's specific professional interests in acute care/emergency strategies, sport-concussion, and rodeo medicine. He has completed training to become an Emergency Medical Technician and has published research pertaining to concussion assessment in the Journal of Athletic Training. His work at Great Plains Health has allowed him to create a niche in rodeo by developing the Great Plains Health rodeo sports medicine program as well as being an assistant for the Justin Boots Sports Medicine Team. Tyler is also a firefighter/EMT for the HERSHEY Volunteer Fire Department.
Danielle Kleber, ATC, is currently the Vice-President of Operations at Athletes’ Training Center where she oversees operations and marketing in the delivery of physical therapy, adult fitness, and sports performance training services. She has been with the company since it opened in 2009. Prior to that she served as Head Athletic Trainer at Lincoln Southwest High School for eight years. Danielle is originally from Millard. Steve and Patty have three children; son Storm and daughters Taylor and Paxton.

Crystal Kjar, ATC, is currently the Head Athletic Trainer at Lincoln Southwest High School and has been in this position since 2004. Prior to that she served as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at both Lincoln East for 3 years and Lincoln Southwest for 1 year. Crystal graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a Bachelor’s degree in Exercise Science with an emphasis in Athletic Training. She is active in the athletic training profession serving as Secretary of the Nebraska State Athletic Trainers’ Association (NSATA) from March 2014 to March 2018, is a member of the Secondary School Committee for the NSATA, and provides athletic training coverage for NSAA State events. Crystal is also a member of the Nebraska Youth Concussion Coalition. In 2013, Crystal received the NSATA George E. Sullivan Athletic Trainer of the Year Award. She, her husband Bill, also an athletic trainer, and daughter Ruby reside in Omaha, NE.

Rene Pretorius-Parks, LMHP, LMFT, a Licensed Independent Mental Health Practitioner and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She currently practices in the Behavioral Health Clinic at Children’s Hospital & Medical Center in Omaha, NE and has been there since 2007. Rene is originally from Cape Town, South Africa and moved to Lincoln, NE in 1997 to be a student-athlete at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL). In 2002, Rene graduated with her bachelor’s degree in psychology from UNL whilst also being a member of the Husker Track & Field team. In 2004 Rene graduated from UNL with a Master’s Degree in Marriage and Family Therapy as well as a post-degree certificate in Medical Family Therapy. Outside of her outpatient caseload, Rene also serves on the Chiropractic Advocacy Committee which provides behavioral health consultation to the Children’s Advocacy Team; and provides therapy to athletes and their families who come to her from the Sports Medicine Clinic at Children’s. Rene has also served as President of the Nebraska Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. She and her husband, Trevor, have two children: son, Braxton and daughter, Addison.

Corey Campbell, DC, is the owner and operator of Omaha Spine & Sport, a comprehensive conservatice care facility that has three Doctors of Chiropractic, acupuncturist, massage therapist and functional rehabilitation services. Corey graduated cum laude in Human Biology from Chatham State College where he was a two-time academic all-American running back for the ChS football team. He also graduated from UNMC with a Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology and received his Doctorate of Chiropractic from Cleveland Chiropractic College in Kansas City. Dr. Campbell is an instructor and board member of the Motion Palpation Institute that instructs doctors and students in manipulation, functional rehabilitation, soft tissue release, and sport injury care all over the U.S. and internationally. He is credentialed by and serves as a post-graduate faculty instructor for the Chiropractic Rehabilitation Diplomate program. Dr. Campbell was also the first and only DC to be a part of a large multidisciplinary orthopedic spine center in Nebraska. He has been a referee for football through the NSAA and is excited to be rejoining the NSAA in this capacity.

Jamie Gorwill is the 7-12 Principal/Activities Director at Arthur County High School in Arthur, NE. Jamie grew up in western Nebraska graduating from Ogallala High School and receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree with endorsements in Vocational Business Education and English from Chadron State College. In 2014 she obtained a Master of Arts in Educational Administration from the University of Nebraska-Kearney. Jamie is in her 16th year at Arthur and her 4th year as the Principal/AD. In that time she has coached volleyball, basketball, assisted with Junior High track and sponsored various other activities. She also serves as a director of the School Rodeo Association and is a participant in the Sherwood Foundation catalyst program for rural community leaders. She and her husband, Shane, have two children: daughter Payton and son Grady.

Ron Higdon, NSAA, became an Assistant Director for the Nebraska School Activities Association in June of 2011. He is the administrator for cross county, wrestling, and boys and girls soccer as well as the liaison for the NSAA Sports Medicine Advisory Committee. Ron oversees the assigning of medical personnel for all NSAA Championships. He served on the NFHS Wrestling Rules Committee as well as the NFHS Spirit of Sport and Heart of Heart Committees. He was formerly the wrestling coach at the University of Nebraska Omaha for 19 years (15 as an assistant). In 1991-99 and 2004-05 he coached six NSAA Academic All-State team titles (2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010 & 2011). In 2005 they won the team title as well as the academic team title—the team with the highest combined GPA (3.28 GPA). Originally from Amarillo, Texas, he moved to Omaha in 1987 to wrestle at UNO. He was a two-time collegiate All-American in wrestling prior to coaching. Ron is married to Sandy Derby-Higdon and proud parent of Kalee and Ryder.

Dan Masters, NSAA, graduated from Battle Creek High School where he participated in athletics, activities and student council. Dan attended Concordia University graduating in 2005. He spent eight years at Concordia High School as a Business and PE teacher, Head Boys Basketball Coach and FBLA Sponsor. He has served as the Activities Director and Assistant Principal at South Sioux City High School where he was overseer of event management and district music contests. He strives to create equitable visibility and opportunities for all activities. Dan joined the NSAA in July 2015.